Macy's

R. H. Macy and Co.
BOTH SIDES OF 14TH ST.—(Running from 13th to 15th St.), SIXTH AVE.

Dewey's Triumphant Home Coming.

The Olympia is lessening the knots that separate the Admiral from America. When he arrives the Nation will be ready with plaudits, wreaths, banners, cheers and eloquence. We'll laud him, we'll laurel him, we'll exalt him. Harbor and city will seethe with flags, vibrate with music and blaze with illuminations. Hurrah for Dewey, and all his gallant Jack Tars!

Visitors to New York.

You know Macy's. This is its 44th Autumn. Better than ever. You are as welcome as ever. The values are greater than ever. This page records a few of them—just a fraction of the stupendous whole. We undersell competition because we enjoy many well-known facilities that are peculiar to the Macy organization. Vast factory interests that eliminate in-between cost. Direct from the maker to you. That's the brilliant principle.

Dress Goods.

Storm Serge—grand Storm Serge, woven of the finest combed yarn in two styles of wales, thoroughly sponged and shrunk. Our guarantee with every yard. That means if the goods spots or shrinks we'll exchange it or give back your money. We control the factory's output for this market. Black and eighteen new Autumn shades, 45 inches wide, regular 70c. grade; our price, 49c.

Imported Granites, Vigoureux, Poplins, Whipcords, Armures, Jacquards and other seasonal and extremely desirable Suitings. These wools, in the aggregate, are imposing and as bargains they have no worthy competition. Black and every staple Fall color, 45 to 48 in. wide, worth from 75c. to $1.25; our price, 49c.

Ladies' Cloth—nothing better for many uses—entire suits, separate skirts, waists or children's dresses—black and twenty right shades—52 in. wide, solid promiscuously at 65c. and 75c.; our price, 49c.

Zibeline Plaids, you'll enjoy the bold cross-graining, you'll appreciate the crisp, fine, silky fibre. The mill that made them gave us a monopoly. The same goods cannot be secured elsewhere. The absence of competition does not affect the price unpleasantly. 45 in. wide, worth $1.00; our price, 89c.

Golf and Bicycle Suitings, expressly manufactured for rough-and-ready, knockabout uses. 56 in. wide, worth $1.50; our price, 98c.

Agate Kitchen Ware.

Gray Steel Enamelled Agate Ware is ideal unless you carelessly get the damaged kind that, under the compromising brand of "seconds," is hawked about by manufacturers until some enterprising (?) retailer is persuaded to handle them. They are dangerous to health. That's why our antipathy toward them is so violent.

Often more than our prices for firsts are less than others charge for the injured sort.
